3. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The UWC Kiribati National Committee sets out the Terms and Conditions of this Application purposely to make applicants fully aware of what they are agreeing to upon signing this application. It should be read thoroughly and must be understood entirely before completing and signing this application. The Terms and Conditions are as follows:

Please note that if parents or legal guardians of selected candidates are unable to provide them with such contributions or support, then they should construct a considerable piece of writing – expressing their reasons for such (to be considered by the Kiribati National Committee) if not, the offer will then be given to the next candidate. This is to be done after the confirmation of their children actually being selected by the Kiribati National Committee.

A. Accordingly the fee for this application form is AU$10.00 which should be paid by the applicant when he/she is collecting this form from the UWC Kiribati National Committee Office. All application fees are equal and none is higher or lower than others. All applicants should be fully aware of the Eligibility Criteria (Section 1) as Application fees are non-refundable regardless of the results of the Selection Process and the inapplicability of their application. Copy of receipts should be provided and attached with this application as proof of payment made by the applicant.

B. Applicants who are under the age of 18 should consult with their parents or legal guardians before completing and signing this application. Note that the authority of selected candidates is to be transferred to the Kiribati National Committee (KNC) only in terms of further communications on their behalf to the UWC International after a successful application (selected candidates only) and extends no further.

Note: The Confidentiality Clause of this application specifies the non-disclosure of applicants' details to the public or requesting third parties.
